Subject: Toastmasters meeting minutes - October 14, 2005

Greetings Fellow Toastmasters!

If you made it to our meeting this morning you would know that our glass is definitely half-full.

We didn't have any speakers but we made do with table topics and a rousing extended coffee time.

Harold Norman did the Table Topics and asked the following people:

Loraine - What would you do if you won the Powerball? We found out you have to buy a ticket before you can win and she doesn't buy them...but if she did by chance win, she would buy tons of stuff for humanitarian aid around the world. Basically she is a philanthropist at heart.

Eric - Where would you go if Loraine gave you a trip (from her winnings!) to anyplace in the world? Eric won Best Table Topics with his response - he didn't want to settle for one destination! If Loraine had all that money, she could afford to send him to a lot of places, starting with Hawaii, the Great Wall of China, the Pyramids in Egypt and many, many more places!

Jan - Which is the best season of the year? Fall - she's loving it!!! She even likes to hear her footsteps in the leaves. I think that's because it's harder for someone to sneak up on you.

REMINDER!!!!!!

NO MEETING NEXT FRIDAY - OCTOBER 21st (MEA weekend)

The next scheduled meeting - October 28th is our "continental breakfast" meeting. We just plan on having orange juice (John's bringing), rolls and fruit. I think we are covered but if not, Jan will let us know.

Thanks again for another great meeting! Even if it was a little abbreviated.

John Bishop,

Secretary/Treasurer
