Subject: Toastmaster meeting minutes for 9/092005

Greetings, be it ever so late...8-)

We had a good meeting last Friday. I mean it had to be good since I'm writing these minutes a week later and I'm a terrible note taker.

Toastmaster: Loraine Vettel
Table Topics: Brian Hinton
Speakers: Sheri French (2 speeches!), Alyssa Bishop
Master Evaluator: Ron Flemke
Evaluators: Eric Barsness, Rob Nelson, and all for Sheri's contest speech

Table Topics: Brian asked Ruth, Louis, and John "what Toastmasters means to you". Ruth won all the beans with a great reply.

Sheri won Best Speaker for her speech "If you give a mom a moment, she will have moments to spare". Sheri's 2nd speech was practice for the contest - "Mark and Rob Territorius". Two really good speeches that held us captive.

Alyssa did a reading called "A Midwest Apology - If that's OK". She did a fantastic job with the reading and all us Midwesterners could really relate. I think this one would also be a good contest speech...if they have a contest for readings or if you could take some liberty to do it as a humourous speech.

See you all tomorrow!
