Subject: Toastmasters Meeting Minutes - Sept 23, 2005

Toastmaster: Eric Barsness (1st time - great job!!)
Table Topics: Cynthia O'Brien
Table Topics speakers: Loraine Vettel, Jim McKeon, Jan McNallan
Speakers: John Bishop, Sheri French, Larry Mattson
Master Evaluator: Horst Truedstedt
Evaluators: Mary Andrist, Ron Flemke, Brian Hinton

Table Topics:

Table Topics were great - Cynthia asked the question "Which is Best?" and gave the speakers two choices.

Jan won Best Table Topics with her answer to "Which is best - having a grandson or a granddaughter?" You can tell she loves being a grandma and it doesn't matter when the kids are small. She did say when they get to be teenagers - "Give me Boys!".

Loraine spoke to "Which is better - having a dog or a cat?". Why a dog of course! Obviously she hasn't seen my cat Oreol!

Jim spoke to "Which is better - a car or a truck?". Beauty is not in the skin or shell, it's the heart baby! Gimme a hemi anytime, no matter what it's in.

Speakers:

Larry won Best Speaker with his "I wonder if there are more like this?". An excellent speech about spelunkers (cave explorers) who found a cave in France with drawings dating back 32,000 years. Very interesting speech that kept our attention.

Sheri's speech - "Just do it!" was another very good speech which is almost automatic coming from Sheri. She shared quotes of wisdom and though provoking tidbits with us from famous people.

John's speech - "Are you ready for some football?" gave a brief insight into the ultimate couch potato's favorite sport - Fantasy Football. He was so excited he left his trophy's at the meeting and had to call Loraine to pick them up for him and hold them for the next meeting.

Mary won Best Evaluator!

Until next Friday!
